

Sensory Advocacy Service

Advocacy is about your voice being heard.

Advocates support you to speak up, or can speak up on your behalf if needed.

The Sensory Advocacy Service aim to provide support for people with a hearing and/or sight loss.

If you would like some advice or want to know more, then come along to our information point at the Audiology Department at Perth Royal Infirmary between 1.30pm and 3.30pm on these dates:

13th February 2018

20th March 2018

17th April 2018

15th May 2018

19th June 2018

For any enquiries please contact Michelle, Tel: 01382 201077 or
Text: 07745347567 or Email: michelle@deaflinks.org.uk

Run by;

Sensory Advocacy Service (SAS)

New evening service!
Starting Wednesday 7th February
2018

Need advocacy? Working?
Need support after work?

Wednesdays 5-7pm
By Appointment only

Contact Tricia Mill, Advocacy Coordinator

Tricia@deaflinks.org.uk

Text: 07926568529

Meeting the needs of our Sensory impaired working community

Scottish Charity Number SC040223
Scottish Company Limited by Guarantee Number 353562

What is advocacy?

Someone to support you and help make sure your choices, views and rights are listened to and upheld. It is a FREE service

We will not make decisions for you. We will work with you to help you take control of important decisions in your life.

Who is it for?

We can people who are:

- Deaf
- Hard of hearing
- Deafened
- Deafblind
- Blind
- Visually impaired
- Or people with dual sensory loss

What do we do?

- Work for you only when and how you decide
- Help you get information so you know your choices
- Help you get ready for and go with you to meetings
- Help you understand letters/bills/benefits
- Help with forms
- Help with phone calls
- Help with problems at work
- Help with debt issues
- Make sure your rights to communication support are respected
- Help with health appointments
- Help to speak up for yourself